

Ready To Go

I hurry home I have been working
The party is at 6 o'clock
I take a bath and put my pants on
The pants are clean and it's my luck

*Not ready to go,
Have to hurry up*

I take my black shoes in the closet
I take my shirt it's looking good
I brush my teeth and spray some perfume
And now I know I smell so good

*I'm ready to go,
Ready for the party now*

I'm looking good in my new black suit
And I'm sure everyone will think
That I'm the best dressed at the party
When I arrive and walk right in

*I'm ready for fun,
Ready for the party now*

I'm standing right outside the party
I take a deep breath and walk in
The room is full but so surprising
Everyone is dressed in pink

*It wasn't quite fun,
Everyone laughed at me*
